ACTIVITIES

BAND

Playing at football games, basketball games, for special occasions and drilling, the 50-piece West Lafayette Band again broke performance records. Snappy in their completed uniforms and lively in their quick shuffling march time, the Band made several hits by its maneuvering quickly, smoothly at the halves of several basketball games. The Band's loss with graduation will be more in quality than quantity with only five Seniors whose places will be hard to fill.

ORCHESTRA

With a much improved violin section, the Orchestra was, musically, the outstanding group this season. The Orchestra has not had the opportunity to perform as many times as the Band, but its work was more of quality. Several members participated in the County Festival. The highlight of the season was the Orchestra's prominent part in the local Music Festival, doing the difficult job of accompanying soloists and the Glee Club.
